Information for New Member Applicants:

Approval: The Club reserves the right to refuse or decline any application for membership without reason or further explanation.

Process for Membership Applications:

Any Person who has lodged a nomination form duly completed in accordance with the Club Constitution and pays the subscription appropriate to the class of membership will be granted Provisional Membership while awaiting the Board's decision in relation to that person's application. The cut off date for the acceptance of New Member applications is 14 days prior to the sitting of the next Board or Election Committee meeting. Provisional Members do not become Financial Members of the Club until approved at a meeting of the Board or the Election Committee. Provisional Members may not be eligible to receive the benefits from some Club promotions e.g. Members Lucky Badge Draw until such time as the application has been approved by the Board or Election Committee (subject to change without notice)

Club Rules: A copy of the Clubs Constitution and By Laws is available on request.

Renewals: Are due by the 30th June of each year. If you join the Club in the month of May or June as a Social Member your membership will be rolled over for the next year. The prescribed Membership Fee in full will be payable if joining in any month up to the end of April of that year.

Bowling Membership Applications:

Applicants for bowling membership categories must have undertaken and met the required coaching standards required by the Belrose Bowling Club LTD, Royal NSW Bowling Association (men) and the NSW Women's Bowling Association. Bowling Membership will only be considered after applicant has satisfactorily completed an approved coaching course in the game of Lawn Bowls.
